

Homecoming Tour 2012

Taylor County Expo Center – Coliseum

Friday, March 16, 2012

7:00 PM

For nearly a half-century, Bill and Gloria Gaither have blazed a trail of unprecedented leadership in Gospel music, awarded as ASCAP's Songwriters of the Century, in addition to multiple Grammy Awards, Gospel Music Association Dove Awards and countless others. They have served as mentors and champions for numerous artists who went on to enjoy long, successful careers. Their best-selling Homecoming DVD series has drawn millions of listeners to the timeless message of Gospel music. As songwriters, they have contributed such gospel standards as "Because He Lives" and "He Touched Me," along with more than 700 others.

The Homecoming concert tour features many of the artists, songs and truths Bill and Gloria Gaither have spent their lives advancing. Among the talented roster of artists featured on this special evening with Gaither and the Gaither Vocal Band, featuring Mark Lowry, David Phelps, Michael English and Wes Hampton, are The Martins, The Nelons, Gordon Mote, Charlotte Ritchie, Gene McDonald and Kevin Williams.
